24th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Sept. 12, 2020
PRAISE, MY SOUL, THE KING OF HEAVEN

LAUDA ANIMA

1. Praise, my soul, the King of heaven; To his feet thy tribute bring; Ransomed, healed, restored, forever given, Evermore his praises sing: Alleluia!

2. Praise him for his grace and favor To his children in distress; Praise him still the same as ever, Slow to chide and swift to bless: Alleluia!

3. Father-like he tends and spares us; Well our bears us, Res-cues us from all our foes. Alleluia!

4. Angels, help us to adore him; You be- hold him face to face; Sun and moon, bow down before him, In his holy dwelling-place. Alleluia!

Al- le - lu - ia! Praise the everlast- ing King.

Al- le - lu - ia! Glo- rious in his faith - ful - ness.

Al- le - lu - ia! Wide - ly yet his mer - cy flows.

Al- le - lu - ia! Praise with us the God of grace.

Text: 8 7 8 7 8 7; based on Psalm 103; Henry F. Lyle, 1793-1847, alt. Music: John Goss, 1800-1880.
GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest,
and on earth peace to people of good will.
We praise you,
we bless you,
we adore you,
we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King,
O God, almighty Father.
Lord Jesus Christ, only Begotten Son,
Lord God, lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world,
    have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world,
    receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
    have mercy on us.
For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father.

Amen.
A reading from the book of Sirach:

Wrath and anger are hateful things, yet the sinner hugs them tight. The vengeful will suffer the LORD’s vengeance, for he remembers their sins in detail. Forgive your neighbor’s injustice; then when you pray, your own sins will be forgiven. Could anyone nourish anger against another and expect healing from the LORD? Could anyone refuse mercy to another like himself, can he seek pardon for his own sins? If one who is but flesh cherishes wrath, who will forgive his sins?

Remember your last days, set enmity aside; remember death and decay, and cease from sin! Think of the commandments, hate not your neighbor; remember the Most High’s covenant, and overlook faults.

Psalm 103: 24th Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year A

The Lord is kind and merciful, slow to anger, and rich in compassion.

A reading from the letter of St. Paul to the Romans:

Brothers and sisters:
None of us lives for oneself, and no one dies for oneself. For if we live, we live for the Lord, and if we die, we die for the Lord; so then, whether we live or die, we are the Lord’s. For this is why Christ died and came to life, that he might be Lord of both the dead and the living.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION: ALLELUIA NO. IV

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew:

Peter approached Jesus and asked him,
"Lord, if my brother sins against me,
how often must I forgive?
As many as seven times?"
Jesus answered, "I say to you, not seven times but seventy-seven times.
That is why the kingdom of heaven may be likened to a king who decided to settle accounts with his servants.
When he began the accounting,
a debtor was brought before him who owed him a huge amount.
Since he had no way of paying it back,
his master ordered him to be sold,
along with his wife, his children, and all his property,
in payment of the debt.
At that, the servant fell down, did him homage, and said,
'Be patient with me, and I will pay you back in full.'
Moved with compassion the master of that servant
let him go and forgave him the loan.
When that servant had left, he found one of his fellow servants who owed him a much smaller amount.
He seized him and started to choke him, demanding,
'Pay back what you owe.'
Falling to his knees, his fellow servant begged him,
'Be patient with me, and I will pay you back.'
But he refused.
Instead, he had the fellow servant put in prison until he paid back the debt.
Now when his fellow servants saw what had happened, they were deeply disturbed, and went to their master and reported the whole affair.
His master summoned him and said to him, ‘You wicked servant!
I forgave you your entire debt because you begged me to. Should you not have had pity on your fellow servant, as I had pity on you?’
Then in anger his master handed him over to the torturers until he should pay back the whole debt.
So will my heavenly Father do to you, unless each of you forgives your brother from your heart.”

THE JESUS SONG

Tom Booth

Lord Jesus Christ, Son of God, have mercy on me, have mercy on me. Lord Jesus Christ, Son of God, have mercy on me, have mercy on me. Amen.

Jesus, I trust in you. Jesus, I trust in you.

You are the Son of the Living God. Jesus,

I trust in you. Jesus, I trust in you.

Alleluia 7

Alle-lu-ia, alle-luia, alle-lu-ia. Alle-lu-ia, alle-lu-ia, alle-lu-ia!

cf. Ps 36 (35):
How precious is your mercy, O God!
The children of men seek shelter in the shadow of your wings.
1. A - wake from your slum - ber! A - rise from your sleep! A new day is dawning for all those who weep.

2. We are sons of the morn - ing; we are daugh - ters of day. The One who has loved us has bright - ened our way.

1. The peo - ple in dark - ness have seen a great light. The Lord of our long - ing has con - quered the night.

2. The Lord of all kind - ness has called us to be a light for his peo - ple to set their hearts free.

Let us build the cit - y of God. May our tears be turned in - to danc - ing! For the Lord, our light and our love, has turned the night in - to day!

3. God is light; in him there is no dark - ness.

3. Let us walk in his light, his chil - dren, one and all.
